

Five Gross Zombies

Jane Farrall

Five gross zombies went out one day,
Over the crypt and far away.

The sun came up and they looked around,
But one of the zombies couldn't be found.

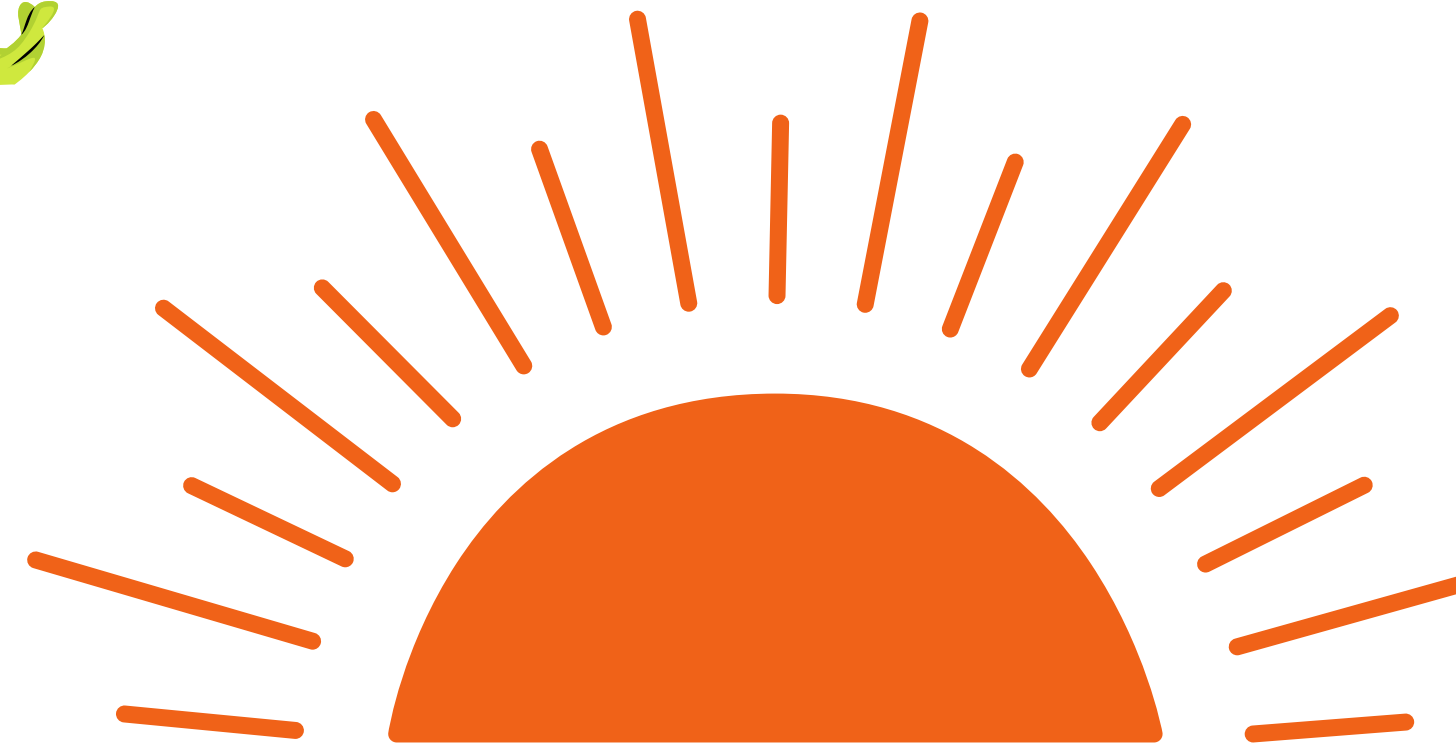

He was taking an invitation to a friend.

Four gross zombies went out one day,
Over the crypt and far away.

The sun came up and they looked around,
But one of the zombies couldn't be found.

He was out buying a present.

Three gross zombies went out one day,
Over the crypt and far away.

The sun came up and they looked around,
But one of the zombies couldn't be found.

He was preparing some brains.

Two gross zombies went out one day,
Over the crypt and far away.

The sun came up and he looked around,
But the other zombie couldn't be found.

He was making some punch.

One gross zombie went out one day,
Over the crypt and far away.

The sun came up and he looked around....

And all the other zombies had been found.
(and some extra ones too)

HAPPY DEATHDAY!

