

Reading Levels at Bullimbal School

Blue

1 - 3 words per page, meaning supported by picture and highly repetitive within the text.

Red

4 - 8 words per page in a single line, meaning supported by picture and highly repetitive within the text.

Green

2 to 3 lines of print per page, meaning supported by picture and words repeated within the text.

Yellow

4 - 7 lines of print per page, meaning supported by picture and words repeated within the text.

Orange

8 or more lines of print per page, supported by picture and words repeated within the text.

Silver

*This level contains picture books and many non-fiction books. This is the level from which most emergent readers should be selecting.

1 or more lines of print per page with minimal repetition of words and phrases. Meaning is supported by pictures if pictures are present. This category includes most picture books. Varying difficulty levels within the text.

Pink

Chapter books that are levelled into:

1. early chapter books (equivalent to orange)
2. intermediate chapter books (equivalent to some silver texts)
3. advanced chapter books (equivalent to some silver texts)